Please bring vegetables & canned goods to school on Tuesday 11/19

Preschool students: 1-3 canned vegetables (corn, tomatoes, beans etc...)

Early Primary: 1-2 gallons of apple cider (Please bring FRIDAY morning 11/22)

Primary Blue & Yellow: carrots, celery and leafy greens

Juniors: potatoes, sweet potatoes, squash

Seniors: 24 count/serving cornbread muffins (Please bring 11/22)

Middle School: please send in on Wednesday 11/20 -

-Math 7 & Geometry - 1 pint of heavy cream each, we will make butter at school

-Math 8 - 2 medium-large onions - we will chop these at school as part of a science experiment

To make Stone Soup happen, we need a lot of help from parents. Here is the link to sign up to help chop vegetables with students on Tuesday 11/19 & Thursday 11/21 and help with set up and clean up on 11/22. Thank you!

Many thanks to...

- Middle School parents for driving us to see Macbeth at the ASC on Thursday.
- A big THANK YOU to the senior parents that braved the rain to drive and chaperone the Grand Caverns Field Trip-Wendy L., Erica C, Mallory H., Justin H., Jim M., and Thomas P. It was a wonderful experience for the students- thank you for making it possible!

Did you know?

- #GivingTuesday is a global day of giving. This year it falls on December 3. Thanks to challenge donors, gifts to NBS on 12/3 have the potential to be doubled! If you made a pledge to the Annual Fund on your Yellow Pages, December 3 is a great day to donate to support the children and teachers of NBS!
- There is a new blog post about some of the Fall happenings at NBS with great photos by Coe Sweet Photography. Check it out here:
